Apostleship Of The Sea

Next week is Sea Sunday, when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. There will be a second collection for Stella Maris, Apostleship of the Sea, the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church.

It provides practical and spiritual support to seafarers visiting our ports. As it is dependant on voluntary donations, please give generously.

For more information about its work, please visit www.apostleshipofthesea.org.uk

Help Us To Help You

We have been very fortunate in this Parish to have had such a dedicated group of Catechists who have instructed our children for their First Holy Communion. This year will be the 20th year that the same group have devoted themselves to teaching the course and they have also decided that it is time for them to take a step back and make way for a new group of people to coordinate this. We are desperately in need for people to come forward who would be happy to take up this role. We will send you on all the relevant courses and make sure you are fully trained in how to teach the Sacrament of First Holy Communion. We are hoping to have a handful of people come forward for this before the end of the summer holidays, this way you can sit in on some of the classes taking place this coming September to get a feel for the course. We need your help to continue teaching our faith to our children.

Please contact Fr Sean or Chelsea in the Parish Office if you would like to put yourself forward. Thank you.

We are also looking for a handful of people to take up the role of a Baptism Catechist. Currently we do not have one of these and it would be a great addition to our Parish. The role would consist of meeting with the parents wishing to Baptise their child/ren, help the parents to understand what they are asking for and prepare them for the Sacrament. Of course we will give you full training and you would only be required as Baptism requests come in. If you would like to put yourself forward please speak to Fr Sean or Chelsea in the Parish Office. Thank you.

Holy Communion Photos

Those who ordered photos of the First Holy Communion can now collect these at the Parish Office during opening hours. Payment can also be made in the office but cash only. Bank transfers can also be made but please bring proof of payment when collecting. Thank you.

Confirmation & Holy Communion Enquiries

The classes for 2019/2020 have not yet been scheduled by the Catechists, and we intend for them to have a lovely Summer break before putting them back to work. Therefore, I will not be able to give out applications or inform you of when these will go out just yet. As soon as we have a schedule in place for children wanting to make their Confirmation or First Communion I will advertise it in this newsletter for 4 weeks. Thank you.
