Last Sunday, when Fr. Matteo joined Fr Kamal and me for lunch' at The Clergy House in Peter Avenue, he told us how much he had enjoyed his first weekend at Kensal Rise. It was heartening to hear how warmly you welcomed him. Moving to a new parish is one of the most challenging things for a priest, and your kindness made a lasting impression.

Fr. Matteo spoke highly of all three Masses, but it was the 10am Mass that stood out for him. He described the full church, the diversity of ages and backgrounds in the congregation, the devotion of the servers, the vibrant children's liturgy, and the beautiful music from the choir loft. It was a celebration that reflected the vitality of our parish.

This makes it all the more important that we listen carefully to Dillon O'Keefe from our finance committee, who will be presenting a financial overview at the end of all Masses this weekend. While there is much to give thanks for, especially the generous response to the Planned Giving Drive earlier this year, there is still work to be done. We must aim to do more within our parish, keep our buildings in good condition, and increase our outreach to the local community—something that was highlighted in the Synod responses earlier in the year. All of this can only take place if we have confidence in our finances.

Please reflect and pray about how you can best support the financial needs of our parish, whether through Standing Orders, Gift Aid, or legacies. Your ongoing generosity ensures that we can continue to grow and serve both our congregation and our wider community.

God bless you all.

Monsignor Roger
