From Cardinal Vincent's homily at the Launch of the Synodal Pathway in our diocese.

Pope Francis presented three words that he sees as key to this journey. They were 'meet, listen, discern'. He wants us to meet with people with whom we don't often gather, especially with people who are often left out, or who feel left out. He wants us to listen from the heart as we share our journey of faith. He wants us to ponder, prayerfully, what we see as gifts of God emerging in our meetings.

Pope Francis is also very clear about what he doesn't want. He says continually: 'It is not about gathering opinions, no. This is not a survey but about listening to the Holy Spirit... The first commitment is to have ears, to listen.' Again, he says: 'This is not about distinguishing between majorities and minorities: a parliament does this'. Rather, he says, 'the rejected must be part of the process and we must include our miseries!'

Our conversations are to be based on our experience of living the faith. Recent months, the long months of the pandemic, have thrown fresh light on that experience. So, we begin by listening to how we have lived our faith during this time, what has helped, what was missing, who was left out. We ask 'How did God touch my life in those long and difficult months?'

Then the second step is to broaden out those reflections to the wider themes of this process: communion, participation and mission. Communion: What do we learn about the strengths and weaknesses of our life as a Church? Participation: How easy is it to make a contribution, to participate? What is the way of participation that you would most appreciate? And mission: our call to serve the world, working alongside all brothers and sisters.

The third step is to gather the fruits of this reflection and to offer that fruit to the wider diocese so that an overall picture of our life and faith, our dreams and hopes, our desires and insights might emerge.

But do not be anxious. Do not pay attention to those who are saying that this is a divisive and risky endeavour. Do not be tempted to reduce it to a gathering of opinions. It is not ideas we are to be talking about, but the touch and movement of the Holy Spirit in the lives of each of us, whether woman or man, young or old, layperson or priest, or cardinal! We all have our contributions to make. This is a journey that will be true in as much as it is made with a loving and open heart, with humility and deference, with twice as much listening as talking! Let this be your guide. In this way, we can ask to enrich each other and, together, enrich the life of the Church.

Prayer for the Year of St Joseph

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To You God entrusted his only Son;
in You Mary placed her trust;
with You Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph to us too, show yourself as Father

and guide us on the path of life.

Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.

The Prayer of the Synod:

Adsumus Sancte Spiritus

Attributed to St. Isidore of Seville (560-636), it has been traditionally used at Councils and Synods for hundreds of years. The version below was specifically designed for the Church's Synodal journey from 2021 to 2023.

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path

nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time,

in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Thank you for your generous contribution during these times.
