Dear Friends

“Prophets in our times”

I expect when many of us think of prophets, the austere and perhaps somewhat eccentric – at least in appearance – figure of someone like St John the Baptist comes to mind. However, I would like to suggest that all of us, by virtue of our Christian vocation are called to be prophets – that is to say “forth tellers”. We are not predicting the future, rather we are grounded in the present moment and by our Christian way of living are showing the world a way of life that is radical, insofar as it puts the other person at the centre, rather than ourselves.

Our vocation is to be of service. One of the Holy Father’s titles is “Servus Servorum Christi” – Servant of the Servants of Christ. Service can be seen very simply as prayer in action when we undertake it for the good of others.

I expect many of you, like me, have been to Lourdes. There the message is quite simple – penance yes, but also a place where prayer and action meet and we discover anew the real privilege of being of service to others, seemingly less fortunate than ourselves, at least initially.

The wonderful reality of this kind of service towards another, is that I receive so much more than I give. I have been amazed so many times at the serenity and joy exuded by those I have encountered at Lourdes and elsewhere. The line from this Sunday’s Gospel is apt here “if anyone gives you a cup of water just because you belong to Christ, he will most certainly not lose his reward”. Let’s engage in this generosity of spirit and action – by it we will prophesy to the world the Good News of Jesus Christ and so build up the Church, the Body of Christ in this place, our parish, where we are all privileged to serve.

I wish you all a wonderful week. Let’s pray for each other!

Father John

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED – GARDENING “FATIGUES”!!

As you may know, the presbytery is extremely fortunate in having an extensive back garden – including a now redundant chicken coop! this latter item needs to be cleared before the arrival of the colder weather and so we are looking for some enthusiastic volunteers to help dismantle the hutches and clear the garden sheds nearby!!

I suggest that these tasks could be carried out over a couple of weekends. If you are able to help, please contact me via email: kensalrise@rcdow.org.uk

Thank you in anticipation! As well as helping to tidy things up, it will be a good opportunity for me to get to know some more of you and to begin to build up some community amongst us as we slowly emerge from the pandemic.

Motivation for Mark 9:38-43.45.47-48

"This Sunday's Gospel invites us to recognize and be aware of how all people are capable of good, since each person has received gifts from God. Gifts that often surprise us and break our expectations and ways of thinking. That is why there is also an invitation to be open to recognize God's action and above all not to judge for ourselves the way God takes to reach people. Where we work for others, where we love and do good, where the doors are opened to the hungry and the thirsty, even if they do not know the God of Jesus, we know that God becomes present equally, because this promise is for all people."
