31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Remembrance Sunday

Next Sunday, the 11am Mass will be a Requiem for all those who fell during the First and Second World Wars, and more recent conflicts. Why do we remember? We remember in the hope that humanity might learn and change from its mistakes. We remember all those who gave their lives so that we could be free. We remember the price of freedom. Poppies will be on sale this Sunday, after Mass during the week, and next weekend. Please remember that this money goes towards looking after those who are still alive from the Second World War, and for those young men and women who have been scarred mentally and physically by more recent conflicts. It's all very well for us to thank them in our minds but we also need to dig deep into our pockets if we are able to, and show our appreciation, so that they are cared for and looked after by the society for which they gave so much. It also helps the widows and families of those who were killed, and tries to do something to help them in their grief and loss.

"We will remember them."

Fr Sean

The 50/50 draw will be this Sunday at the 11am Mass

Do You Ever Notice The Flowers?

Do you ever notice the flowers, sitting beautifully in our Church?
We need people to volunteer and for that, we are on a search!

You don't need to have experience, just be committed and up for the job.
I fear that if we do not find help then we will lose our flowers and sob.

So please notice our lovely church flowers, and ask yourself if you can help with your time, we will train you and guide you along the way, we may even do it in rhyme.

Come forward today and sign up, it really is you that we need!
Speak to the office or Fr Sean when you can, it will be a great help indeed.
