THE TRANSFIGURATION, KENSAL RISE

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time — 10th November 2019

NEWSLETTER

Remembrance Sunday

Today the 11am Mass will be a Requiem for all those who fell during the First and Second World Wars, and more recent conflicts. Why do we remember? We remember in the hope that humanity might learn and change from its mistakes. We remember all those who gave their lives so that we could be free. We remember the price of freedom. Poppies will be on sale today after Mass. Please remember that this money goes towards looking after those who are still alive from the Second World War, and for those young men and women who have been scarred mentally and physically by more recent conflicts. It's all very well for us to thank them in our minds but we also need to dig deep into our pockets if we are able to, and show our appreciation, so that they are cared for and looked after by the society for which they gave so much. It also helps the widows and families of those who were killed, and tries to do something to help them in their grief and loss. "We will remember them." Fr Sean

Holy Souls—November Dead List

November is the time the Church sets aside every year to pray for the Holy Souls. I find this month a time of great consolation for it reminds us that our love and relationships with our family and friends does not end with death; as members of the Church that relationship continues and in fact we can help the souls of our loved ones through the offering of the Sacrifice of the Mass. There will be four Masses said each week during November for the names on our November Dead List. If you would like your deceased loved ones and friends remembered in these Masses, please put their names in a November Dead List envelope and return it to the church or the Presbytery.

Social Committee News

If you would like to come please put you name on the list. Any one coming must make full payment (£37.29 per person) by Wednesday 13th so that we can make a decision about whether we go ahead with the trip or cancel..
