

THE TRANSFIGURATION, KENSAL RISE

NEWSLETTER 7th March 2021

Contacting the Parish

Due to a change in internet providers, very sadly, we have lost our Parish telephone number which was 0208 964 4040. Please delete this number from your records.

Our NEW number is 0203 539 6918. This is the number to speak directly to Fr Sean Thornton about any urgent enquiries and out of office hours.

The Parish mobile number will be available to call during the office hours of Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday between 9:30am and 2:30pm, which is 07378 654 381.

Church helpers

We are very much hoping with the easing of restrictions to be able to begin our Holy Communion programme, Confirmation programme, and the counting of the offertory. We do however, need people to volunteer to be Catechists for the Holy Communion programme, or sadly we will not be able to offer this this year and the children of the Parish will need to go to different Churches. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Chelsea on churchofthetransfiguration@hotmail.com. Thank you.

An outline of the upcoming relaxation of lockdown

8th March - Funerals 30 people. Weddings and wakes 6 people.

No earlier than 12th April - All children's' indoor activities reopening. This should allow us to start up our Confirmation Programme, and volunteers permitting, our Holy Communion Programme.

Funerals 30 people. Weddings, wakes and receptions 15 people.

No earlier than 17th May - Most significant life events 30 people.

No earlier than 21st June - No legal limit on social contact.

We have not had any official guidance from the Diocese yet on numbers for Baptisms so we will announce this when we have more information.
