• Fr Sean's Farewell Party 22nd August after 11am Mass

It is not long until our Parish party. Please sign up to attend on the forms at the back of the church. Also, if you are able to donate (food, drinks, plates, decorations etc) there is a form at the back of the church to fill in.

- We are also looking to show off the talent within our Parish so if you are a budding DJ, singer, dancer, please contact farewellfrsean@outlook.com for more information! Thank you.
- We will need helpers on the day to set up and help pour drinks and serve people, should you be able to help please email farewellfrsean@outlook.com
- There will be a programme for the occasion, and I am looking for parishioners to write about the last 18 years. We have some writing about the tornado of Kensal Rise! The Benemerenti Mass. Any significant events over the last 18 years would be lovely to note in the programme which will act as a keepsake for us all. We are hoping to get articles written about the choir, trips to Walsingham, our Senior Citizens Christmas Parties, the cake project and Justice & Peace, our small prayer group, the Lenten Lunches etc.
- Please send any stories and photos to kensalrise@rcdow.org.uk or drop them through the Presbytery door for the attention of Chelsea. Please could we have all submissions in by Monday 16th August.
- The Parish is very diverse and this is a perfect opportunity for every nation in the Parish to share their national dish with each other. 'A taste of diversity!' We have a lot of people bringing cake to the party, we desperately need more donations of drinks and summer party food such as pasta salads, potato salads etc.
